Updated based on SEC Form 17 – C, Item 4. Election of Directors filed on 29 September 2014

(b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

The Corporation recognizes that the most convincing proof of good corporate governance is that which is visible to the eyes of its shareholders. The Corporation treats all its shareholders equally by allowing them to exercise the following rights:

- 1) Voting Right – Shareholders have the right to elect, remove and replace directors and vote on certain corporate acts in accordance with the Corporation Code. Cumulative voting shall be used in the election of directors.
- 2) Power of Inspection – Shareholders shall be allowed to inspect corporate books and records, including the minutes of Board meetings and stock registries, for a legitimate purpose within reasonable business hours and in accordance with the Corporation Code. They will be furnished Annual reports including financial statements, without cost or restrictions.
- 3) Right to information – Shareholders shall be entitled, upon request, to receive reports submitted to the SEC and PSE.
- 4) Right to Dividends – Shareholders shall have the right to receive dividends subject to the discretion of the Board and the compliance with requirements under the Corporation Code.
- 5) Appraisal Right – Shareholders shall have the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares in the manner provided for under Section 82 of the Corporation Code of the Philippines.

<sup>1</sup> Reckoned as of date of election as ID (J.A. Lapus – 4 October 2013; J. G. Cua – 19 Dec 2012 and E. L. Cu – 19 Dec 2012)

It shall be the duty of the directors of the Corporation to promote shareholders' rights, remove impediments to the exercise of shareholders' rights and allow opportunities for them to seek redress for violation of their rights.

In respect to the rights of the minority shareholders, a director representing them in the board shall not be removed without cause if it will deny minority shareholders representation in the Board.

Reports or disclosures required under the regulations of the SEC and PSE shall be prepared and submitted by the Corporation's Compliance Officer. Material information that could potentially affect the corporation's share price shall be publicly disclosed. Material information includes earning results, the acquisition or disposal of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation, changes in the composition of the Board, related party transactions, shareholdings of directors and change of control. All such material information about the Corporation shall not be disclosed to any person, unless proper and simultaneous disclosures are made to the SEC and PSE. This shall not apply to disclosures made to (i) a person who is bound by duty not to disclose confidential information such as but not limited to the Corporation's auditors and legal counsels, investment bankers, fund or plan trustees and financial advisers; and (ii) a person who agrees in writing to maintain in strict confidence the disclosed material information and will not take advantage of it for his personal gain.

A board member shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- 1) Act with fairness in all his dealings with the Corporation and ensure that his own personal interests do not affect his decisions at the Board level or conflict with the interests of the Corporation;
- 2) Act judiciously and exercise independent judgment;
- 3) Have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting the Corporation, including the contents of its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, the rules, regulations and requirements of the SEC, and where applicable, the requirements of other regulatory agencies;
- 4) Observe confidentiality except in matters already disclosed publicly; and
- 5) Ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness and adequacy of the Corporation's control environment.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The vision and mission of the Corporation is subject to annual review by the Board of Directors or as needed.

He shall oversee the preparation of budgets and statements of accounts, represent the Corporation at all functions and proceedings and execute on behalf of the Corporation all contracts, agreements and other instruments affecting the interests of the Corporation. He shall sign with the Corporate Secretary any and all stock certificates of the Corporation.
Accountabilities	The Chairman shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and the shareholders of the Corporation.	The Chief Executive Officer shall submit a complete report on the operations of the Corporation at the annual meeting to the Board of Directors and shareholders of the Corporation.
Deliverables	The Chairman shall preside over the Annual Stockholders' Meeting as well as the meetings of the Board of Directors.	The Chief Executive Officer shall ensure that the corporate objectives, policies, long range projects, plans and programs as formulated and approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation are implemented. He shall also oversee the preparation of the Corporation's budgets and financial statements. .

3) Explain how the board of directors plans for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

The Board of Directors identifies high-potential employees capable of rapid advancement to positions of higher responsibility than those they presently occupy, ensures the systematic and long-term development of individuals to replace key job incumbents as the need arises due to deaths, disabilities, retirements, and other unexpected losses and provides a continuous flow of talented people to meet the organization's management needs.

4). Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the Company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

The Company does not have a set policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board. However, the directors of the Company must possess qualifications for membership in the board as prescribed by the Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code and other relevant laws, rules and regulations. Moreover, each director shall at least be a college graduate, with proven integrity and probity and of good moral character. The Independent Directors are required to submit a Certification on their affiliations with other business organizations and must possess all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications to serve as an Independent Director of the Company, as provided in Section 38 of the Corporation Code. The non-executive directors should possess qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

Yes, the Company has more than one non-executive director with experience in the sector or industry the Company belongs to.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	Shall be responsible for fostering the success of the Corporation and securing its sustained, competitiveness in a manner consistent with his fiduciary responsibility. --	---	--	------------

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

The Company's definition of "independence" is that an independent director is a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his duties as a director of the Corporation. The term "independent director" includes, among others, any person who: (a) is not a director or officer of the Corporation or of its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders, except when an independent director of any of the foregoing; (b) does not own more than 2% of the shares of the Corporation and/or its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders; (c) is not related to any director, officer or substantial shareholder of the Corporation (i.e., spouse, parent, child, sibling or spouse of such child or sibling) or any of its related companies or any of its substantial shareholders; (d) is not acting as a nominee or representative of any director or substantial shareholder of the Corporation, and/or any of its related companies and/or any of its substantial shareholders, pursuant to any contract or arrangement; (e) has not been employed in any executive capacity by the Corporation, any of its related companies and/or by any of its substantial shareholders within the last 2 years; (f) is not retained, either personally or through his firm or any similar entity, as professional adviser by the Corporation, any of its related companies and/or any of its substantial shareholders, within the last 2 years; or (g) has not engaged and does not engage in any transaction with the Corporation and/or with any of its related companies and/or substantial shareholders, whether by himself and/or with other persons and/or through a firm of which he is a partner and/or a company of which he is a director or substantial shareholder, other than transactions which are conducted at arms' length and are immaterial. A "related company" means another company which is: (a) a holding company; (b) subsidiary; or (c) subsidiary of the holding company of the Corporation. A "substantial shareholder" means any person who is, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of the Corporation's equity security.

The Corporation has complied with the foregoing definition of "independence." The independent directors of the Corporation are free from any business or relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with their exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their duties as directors.

Does the Company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

The Company has a term limit of five (5) consecutive years for independent directors. An independent director will be eligible again for election as independent director for another five (5) years term after a two (2) year cooling-off period, provided that he has not engaged in any activity that under existing rules disqualifies him from being elected as such.

5) Changes in the Board of Directors (Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors)

(a) Resignation/Death/Removal

Indicate any changes in the composition of the Board of Directors that happened during the period:

6) Orientation and Education Program

(a) Disclose details of the company's orientation program for new directors, if any.

The Company has an orientation program for new Directors. New directors may request individual meetings with senior management and receive materials on each of the Company's different business units. The senior management meetings cover a corporate overview, the Company's strategic plans, its significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, its compliance programs, and its business conduct policies. The other Directors may be invited to attend each orientation program as well.

The Directors are given additional educational materials and presentations from Company and/or third party experts on subjects that would enable them to perform better their duties and to recognize and deal appropriately with issues that arise. They shall be required to attend a seminar on corporate governance which shall be conducted by a duly recognized private or government institution.

(b) State any in-house training and external courses attended by Directors and Senior Management<sup>3</sup> for the past three (3) years:

	Alternative Dispute Resolution System
Corporation & Stockholders	Appraisal Right – Shareholders shall have appraisal right or the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares in the manner provided for under <sup>4</sup> Family relationship up to the fourth civil degree either by consanguinity or affinity.

	Sec 82 of the Corporation Code of the Philippines in case of the following (a) any amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, which has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of shareholder or any class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of the Corporation's corporate existence; (b) of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Corporation Code; and (c) of merger or consolidation of the Corporation with another corporation.
Corporation &amp; Third Parties	STI Holdings combines court litigation with alternative dispute resolution options to resolve client or third party cases.
Corporation &amp; Regulatory Authorities	1. Negotiation is the statement upon which all consensual ADR activity is established. It is a consensual procedure intended to allow parties to arrive at a mutually agreeable solution. Negotiation is intended to aim at compromise. 2. Mediation is a consensual process involving a neutral third party whose role is to facilitate resolution of the dispute. Both regulators and private individuals not involved in the regulatory process may act as mediators. In discharging its duties, the mediator must initially solicit the views of the parties on the nature of the dispute and its key issues. 3. Conciliation is closely related to mediation, but involves more formal processes. Here, the parties do not meet together, as the conciliator assumes the role of an intermediary or liaison. The conciliator's primary task is to communicate each disputant's position to the other, relay settlement options, and sometimes offer nonbinding recommendation in an effort to bring the sides closer to settlement.

Community interaction	The Company, through its subsidiary, has in place a community involvement program. STI Foundation's core programs of advocacy provide educational opportunities to public school teachers, students, and disadvantaged youths. Beneath its extensive operations, it takes pride in changing landscapes. It is only in truly transforming the lives of many that STI Foundation's achievements are made significant.	1. "Driving Education Where IT Matters" aims to contribute to nation building and economic development of the country by providing applicable ICT-enhanced training to the youth. Using a "classroom on wheels" model, the project will be able to visit schools nationwide and train students for free. 2. STI Foundation partnered with the National Youth Commission (NYC) and the Department of Education (DepEd) for the Voice of the Youth National Oratorical Competition (VOTY), a nationwide competition participated by fourth year high school students from almost 600 public and private schools. This advocacy serves as platform to encourage students to fluently express their views in English for global competency, as well as to develop critical thinking through the art of public speaking. 3. Beyond education, the Foundation also focuses its efforts in community and civic engagement. STI Foundation forged a partnership with GMA 7's leading variety show Eat Bulaga for the Plastic ni Juan: Sa Plastic at Basura may DalangPag-asa. A proactive project that does not only aim to provide public school students with recycled arm chairs, but is also geared towards addressing the waste management issues of various communities through the collection of plastic wastes at the barangay level. Collected plastic wastes are recycled into mono block armchairs and donated to select public schools. This plastic collection drive was implemented with the support of 16 STI campuses in Metro Manila.

Community Extension and Outreach Programs of STI Holdings' Subsidiaries

Given the national reach of STI ESG, the company has taken upon itself to uphold socially responsible activities that are aimed to better the communities that individual campuses belong to, and at the same time, develop a positive environment that will be beneficial to all stakeholders.

The STI Foundation

The STI Foundation aims to contribute to the improvement of the country's educational system through programs and projects that address the digital divide and promote excellence in education.

The Voice of the Youth National Oratorical Competition

Set towards inspiring the youth to actively stay informed with the current issues, STI partnered with the Department of Education ("DepEd") and the National Youth Commission ("NYC") for the Voice of the Youth ("VOTY") – National Oratorical Competition. This advocacy serves as a platform to encourage the students to fluently express their views in English for global competency as well as develop critical thinking through the art of public speaking.

Since SY 2011-12, more than PhP2 Million worth of prizes were awarded every year to the winners, their coaches, and their respective schools. In SY 2011-12, 676 high schools from Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao joined the competition while 660 high schools participated in this nationwide competition for SY 2012-13 and SY 2013-14.

In SY 2012-13, VOTY joined the 4th PANATA Awards and received the Bronze Award under the Cause Marketing – Special Events category as the Philippine Association of National Advertisers recognized its goal to promote positive Filipino values.

The advocacy also won in SY 2013-14 an Award of Merit under the Advocacy Communications category of the Philippine Quill Awards organized by the International Association of Business Communicators ("IABC") Philippines. The Philippine Quill Awards is the local counterpart of IABC's Gold Quill Awards, joined in by the world's biggest corporations and agencies, and regarded as the highest standard in business communication.

The STI Mobile School

The STI Mobile School is a tourist-sized bus that has been converted into a roving computer laboratory. It is equipped with a state-of-the-art computer laboratory with internet access, multimedia computers, LCD monitors, sound system, and other top-of-the-line computer equipment.

Since SY 2011-12 until SY 2013-14, the STI Mobile School has travelled to 872 sites and trained 105,218 participants nationwide. Today, a total of six mobile school buses travel across Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao.

Run for Pasig

Since SY 2011-12 until SY 2013-14, STI ESG has supported the advocacy of ABS-CBN Foundation's Kapit Bisig Para sa Ilog Pasig, which aims to raise awareness and funds for the rehabilitation of Ilog Pasig and the esteros connected to it. In SY 2013-14, the Run for Pasig, for the first time, was staged as a simultaneous eco-run held in different key locations nationwide namely Quezon City, Cebu, Bacolod, Davao, and in Los Angeles, USA.

14 STI Colleges in Metro Manila (Alabang, Caloocan, Cubao, Shaw, Fairview, Global City, Las Piñas, Makati, Muñoz-EDSA, Novaliches, Parañaque, Quezon Avenue, Recto, and Taft) mobilized 5,391 STIers in SY 2011-12.

In SY 2012-13, STI College Ortigas-Cainta joined for the first time and added to the strong number of 11,240 students, faculty members, and staff. Thus, STI was recognized as the school with the largest contingent based on CHED data.

For SY 2013-14, 21 STI Colleges in Metro Manila, Visayas, and Mindanao (Alabang, Caloocan, Cubao, Fairview, Global City, Las Piñas, Makati, Marikina, Muñoz-EDSA, Novaliches, Parañaque, Pasay, Quezon Avenue, Recto, Shaw, Taft, Ortigas-Cainta, Bacolod, Cebu, Davao, and Tagum) mobilized 13,672 students, faculty members, and staff to participate in the 3k category.

Halalan

STI's partnership with ABS-CBN started in 1998 and has now spanned for more than a decade which included five national polls.

In SY 2013-14, STI partnered once again with ABS-CBN for the 2013 national elections. Thousands of students, faculty members, and staff heeded the call to become Bayan Patrollers. The STI volunteers were tasked to be the key content aggregators wherein they received and verified reports from the Bayan Patrollers through face-to-face interviews and various media platforms.

Super Typhoon Yolanda

At the height of the calamity that struck the country during SY 2013-14, STI ESG and its campuses, STI Alumni Association, and STI Foundation pooled together resources to assist in the rebuilding efforts for the families devastated by the Super Typhoon Yolanda.

A total of Php1.185 Million, both cash and in-kind donations, were collected wherein a portion was used to help the affected STI ESG campuses in Tacloban, Ormoc, Kalibo, and Iloilo.

West Negros University ("WNU")

The English Department of WNU extends its expertise in TESOL in Puroks/Barangays where out-of-school youth, willing mothers and pupils need extra help in English. This is done on weekends and extends until December when a joint culminating and Christmas activity takes place. The English teachers take turns in teaching these young people and their mothers English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL).

WNU continues to extend outreach activities to its adopted community in Purok Tunggoy, Mandalagan, Bacolod City and an adopted school in Granada, Bacolod City, specifically, VAGRES (Vista Alegre Granada Relocation Elementary School).

WNU had the "Care and Share Yolanda Survivors" project days after the huge devastation brought by Super Typhoon Yolanda on November 8, 2013. The project is a collaborative effort of the Wesnean Community and the Protestant Church of Laichingen in South Germany through its volunteer student Nadja Gruhler. A total of Php3 Million was raised that was used to fund relief operations and a Rehabilitation and Recovery Shelter for Yolanda Survivors Homestay Scheme Program at Purok Kantamayon Brgy. Patao in Bantayan Cebu. There were 62 houses built and 31 more to be turned over; while 43 partially damaged houses were also repaired.
